Relationship between emotional intelligence and leadership style in middle manager

Original Research, C1

Khorshidi A, Tarkhan F. and Naghsh Z.

ABSTRACT: This article investigates the relationship of emotional intelligence and leadership style in middle manager.

Keywords: Emotional Intelligence, leadership style, Middle manager.
Today the subject of internationalization of higher education curricula across the world has been accompanied with the issues such as rapid changes, opportunities, and challenges for faculty members. In this regard, the adoption of higher education curricula (including the content and the delivery methods) along with the engagement of students, faculty members, and administrators is essential. The authors compare the internationalization activities and methods of teaching and learning in countries like the United States, America, Finland, and Japan.
Family Communication dimensions, Separation-Individuation and Imaginary Audience in Iranian adolescents

Original Research, C3

Jowkar B., Rahimi M., Zare M. and Barzegar Bafrooei K.

ABSTRACT: Adolescents

Keywords: Conversation, Conformity, Separation-Individuation
ABSTRACT:
The current research has been performed due to the evaluation of ties of personality traits and general health. Data was collected from 205 high school students in Bandar Abbas. The study used the Big Five personality traits model, including extraversion, openness (flexibility), agreeableness, conscientiousness, and neuroticism. The results indicated a negative relationship (p < 0.05) between neuroticism and general health of students. Neuroticism predicts 0.452% of variance of general health.

Keywords: Personality Traits, General Health, Female Students
Network Policy Making: A Necessity for Today's Organizations

Original Research, C5

Kamel M. Alvani S.M. and Mohammadi Moghadam Y.

ABSTRACT: The highly changeable and inconstant conditions of organizational environments, including public and private sectors, have aroused the necessity of updating the policy making procedure to keep pace with today's needs. This study presents several steps and significant points in establishing an effective network for policy making in organizations. Finally, the researchers provided theoretical and applied suggestions in order to prepare organizations for progressing in this direction.

Keywords: Policy making, Decision making, Network structure, Social capital