Original Research, C27
Dorri, N.

ABSTRACT:
One part of every nation's culture, mores and manners derives from its beliefs and thoughts. The culture of different regions reflects their religious beliefs and thoughts. Iranian culture and customs have played an important role in the formation of Arabic and Islamic culture in the first two centuries of the Hejira. The reason for this is that the Islamic era was interested in saints of Shia because it had a close relation with their historical thoughts and principle beliefs.
