Reliability and Validity of the Balanced Scorecard in Iranian Organizations

Original Research, D7

Hashemian F., Abbaspour A., Piri Zamaneh M. and Taheri B.

ABSTRACT: In this study using the Balanced Scorecard in Iranian organizations, we try to examine the coefficient of 55-item scale. The reliability of the scale was determined by Cronbach's alpha coefficient, which was 0.92. The validity of the model was confirmed by convergent and discriminant validity. The factor structure is another evidence for the construct validity (evaluation function) that is designed to measure.

Composing in Persian as a Second Language and English as a Foreign Language: A Study of Narrative Writing

Savaedy SY.

Original Research, D11

ABSTRACT: Although numerous studies have been conducted to investigate second language composing processes, little research has been conducted on the perspective of the students. This study addresses the effect of a second language as well as a foreign language on the writing composition based on the students' level of proficiency in both the second language (Persian) and the foreign language (English). Results show that students at the upper level of proficiency in both English and Persian had more problems in composing in Persian, whereas students below the level had considerably more problems in composing in English and Persian.
