Measures Taken by Iran to Prevent Transnational Organized Crimes and its Estimated Position Compared to the UN Criminal Policy

ABSTRACT:
Transnational Organized crimes are being considered as one of the most important problems of the 21st century. These crimes not only have a direct impact on the state and its citizens but also indirectly affect the economy and social life in society. One of the solutions for the prevention of these crimes is the cooperation of states, in which the UN plays an important role. In this regard, the Palermo convention and the Convention of Merida issue have been issued. Iran has taken measures to implement these conventions. This study is an attempt to present the measures taken by Iran against Transnational Organized Crimes and its estimated position in the context of the UN Criminal Policy.
